

Curriculum Vitae

I'm a highly experienced and versatile creative designer based in East London. My speciality is to find solutions that capture attention with a unique insight. I have worked for 19 years in the creative industry providing a variety of small to large businesses with a range of forward-thinking designs.

As a senior designer and art director, I have been responsible for the development of branding, digital and print materials and animation. My experience spans through a spectrum of industries such as fashion and luxury brands, automotive, charity, finance, sport, broadcasting and high tech.
